Origin: Acclaim's sire, Acorado, scored perfect 10's in jumping at his initial approvals and went on to win his Stallion 100 day test in 1997 with an astonishing 149 in jumping and 127 in dressage, ranking him among the world's best in jumping. The horse won the Bundeschampionade and was destined to be one of the world's greatest international jumpers when he died unexpectedly at the age of 8 years. His offspring are highly prized and he has produced 8 licensed sons including Acclaim. Acclaim's dam is from stamm 4232, which produced many international jumpers produced Coupe De Couer, Russel, and Marimba La Silla who is also the dam's sister. Acclaim's own dam won the prestigious Elmshorn Mare Championship in her year and competed at 1.50 in the USA. Dam sire Silbersee won the World Cup, the Hamburg Derby and was "Horse of the Year" in Germany.

Performance Record: Acclaim won his 2006 AHHA approvals with over 50 bonits including 9's for jumping. He german judges comments were" a very modern, very good type, very good canter, free jumping shows great technique and scope"

Breeding/Progeny Record: Acclaim has produced a high percentage of premium foals in his first foal crops in 2008 and 2009.
