Origin: Sire Balou du Rouet is highly sought after as a breeding stallion, he is very known for producing type, elastic movers, and his oldest offspring are showing his prepotency for first class jumping ability. Banderas comes from a very strong dam line through dam Grisette he combines some of the best bloodlines available. His dam sire is the legendary Grannus, one Germany's greatest sires with over five million DM in earnings, he is also the sire a multiple international and Olympic jumpers, including Top Gun La Silla (Jan Tops), Grand Plaisir (Ludger Beerbaum), Grannusch (John Witaker), Burmah Grand Slam (Nick Skelton) and Imperial to name a few. Grannus is also the sire of over 60 approved stallions. Great Grand sire is the Elite international stallion Beach Boy.

Performance Record: Banderas is the first approved son of the sensational European stallion Balou du Rouet, to stand in North America. Banderas is a very modern type athletic stallion, with a lovely expression, clearly stamped by in looks by his sire.

Banderas has correct conformation, three very good athletic gaits, and shows a huge amount of jumping potential, he jumps in classic form, and show a lot of scope. He also has a very good temperament and good nature. Banderas shows everything needed to be not only a top competition horse but also a top sire.

Breeding/Progeny Record: 2009 Will be Banderas First Year Standing at stud
