Origin: Cielo's sire, Simsalabim V/Berkenbroeck, a son of Nonstop, descends from the legendary Darco, the foundation stallion of the BWP, an Olympic competitor and sire of numerous approved stallions including Parco. Simsalabim's damsire, Feinschnitt I VD Richter another Olympic competitor, jumped at the 1984 games. Cielo's dam Montana is by the double gold medallist Jus de Pomme, while Montana's damsire, Ahorn rounds out the Olympic heritage of Cielo.

Performance Record: Winner of the jumping portion of the 2009 North American 70 day stallion test with an index of 140.07, Cielo was 3rd place overall with a score of 119.48. The test director commented that Cielo has international level talent and will be a "true Grand Prix horse". Cielo competed and qualified for the Young Jumper Championships as a 5 and 6 year old. Currently showing at 1.40m, Cielo will be campaigned in the 7/8 year old Young Jumpers in 2010 and will make his Grand Prix debut in 2011.

Breeding/Progeny Record: Cielo B has produced 100% Premium foals in his first five foal crops with the BWP. He stamps every single foal, improving topline, movement and jump. On the 2008 BWP Keuring Tour, his daughter, Galaxy RSF, was the second highest 2 yo in the Nation, while son, Gentleman, was placed 3rd overall.
