Origin: From Calato, Connecticut inherits the strong performance and breeding lines of Capitol I, who is part of the most influential jumping horse producers of the past decade. His lineage back to Landgraf I needs no introduction as one of the most successful sport horse breeding stallions of all time.

Performance: Successful in Grand Prix, receiving invitations to the Kentucky Horse Park to demonstrate his perfect Piaffe and Passage movements.

Connecticut was also invited to perform his musical freestyle at The Invitational in Tampa FL, at the New England Dressage Federations Breast Cancer Fundraiser in Long Island and at the Challenge of the Americas in West Palm Beach. He also received Horse of the Year by the United States Dressage Federation. Connecticut achieved notable scores around the country, up to the Grand Prix level, and captured the 1st Place Award in the Holsteiner Breed Class at the 2007 Dressage at Devon!

Breeding/Progeny Record: Connecticut passes on his outstanding temperament paired with his dynamic gaits. Connecticut stamps his foals with powerful movement, athletic abilities and sound minds. Foals are often receive a premium award at inspections, including Highlife's Floraboyd, a premium foal, breed show winner and top priced auction filly.
