Origin: Caprimond was Champion of his 100-day Test and proceeded onto an FEI dressage career by age seven with numerous wins at Grand Prix. Caprimond has been a prolific sire with top rankings for conformation, type, gaits, and rideability. He was named the 1998 Stallion of the Year by the Hanoverian Verband. Contucci's dam received 9's on all her gaits at her MPT and her sire Lungau is also the dam sire of the Olympic & World Cup Champion Salinero.

Performance Record: Contucci won the dressage portion of his 100-Day test with an impressive 147.11, earning six 9's. He successfully showed in Germany, including winning a Bundeschampionat qualifier with a 9.2. After his importation Contucci was only lightly shown, but was trained through the FEI levels

Breeding/Progeny Record: Contucci, the 2005 USEF Dressage Breeding Sire of the Year, consistently earns top rankings on the USDF and USEF lists of Leading Sires and has sired more USDFBC Grand Champions or Reserve Grand Champions than any other stallion. His offspring are successfully competing from Training through FEI Levels with amateur, junior, and professional riders. Contucci sired the 2006 USEF Four-Year Old National Champion BW-Callista and Cabana Boy, the 2007 & 2008 USEF Young Horse National Champion & the 2009 USEF Developing Horse National Champion. In 2008 Chiquita HTF was the Foal Champion, Reserve Filly Champion, and USDF/GAIG East Coast Filly Champion of Dressage at Devon. In 2009 El Cid won the American Eventing Championships at Preliminary Level.
