Origin: Danse Diabolique, a black Oldenburg stallion, is a son of the now deceased Donnerhall, who is considered by many as the most famous and accomplished stallion in history. Danse was licensed on November 16, 2001 in Oldenburg, Germany, and he made his performance test in Adelheidsdorf in 2002 with 82.39 points.

Performance Record: Danse Diabolique absolved his 70 days test in 2002 at Neustadt Dosse and has fulfilled all requirements for full approval. Since importation to the US he has competed successfully in Hunter classes.

Breeding/Progeny Record: Danse has an impressive number of premium foals on the ground. He is consistent in producing his classic body type, stunning face, movements and calm temperament.
