Origin: Paparazzo is by Pablo, a son of the legendary champion stallion, Pilot. Pilot, is considered one of the best jumper producers in the world siring many international Grand Prix horses. Paparazzo's dam sire, Dejavue, produced top horses for both dressage and show jumping. Dejavue's bloodlines trace back to very solid, well minded, rideable horses.

Performance Record: Paparazzo finished his stallion performance test in 1998, receiving scores of 9 or 10 for Temperament, Character, Willingness and Ability to Work. His overall score was 112.80, for dressage 106.11, and for jumping 119.65. Paparazzo was a winner at the 2003 C.S.I. International Grand Prix jumping competition in the Youngster Grand Prix Tour (7 & 8 year-olds) in Germany. He also has 10 other career wins in national competition (4 to 5 feet). He also has been shown successfully in the U.S. at AA-Circuit Regular Working Hunters. Paparazzo has fabulous hunter movement, picture-perfect jumping style, and an unbelievably quiet disposition. Paparazzo has been at the top of the list as the USEF Leading Hunter Breeding Sire.

Breeding/Progeny Record: The achievements of Paparazzo's offspring placed him in the top of the national rankings of the USEF Hunter Breeding Sire lists in 2007, 2008, and 2009. In 2009, Posh was the Midwest IHF Three-Year-Old Fillies Challenge Series Champion, Three-Year-Old Under Saddle Champion and the Dressage at Devon Three-Year-Old Filly Champion. Pop's Panda was the West Coast IHF Two-Year-Old Colts Challenge Series Champion. Paisley was the Two-Year-Old Under Saddle Champion. At the East Coast IHF, Trilogy was the Reserve Best Young Horse and Yearling Filly Challenge Series Champion as well as the Upperville Yearling Filly Champion and the Warrenton Yearling Hunter Breeding Champion with Paprika as Reserve. The East Coast IHF Reserve Over Fences Conformation and Reserve Over Fences Working class was Premadonna. Yearling Colts Challenge Series Champion was Play Misty For Me, Two-Year-Old Fillies Challenge Series Champion was Baby Cakes followed by Reserve Papa's Gold. The Five-Year-Old Hunter Classic Champion was Phantasiee. Also in 2009, Pauleah (Maronjo/Picard), was the highest scoring mare of the 266 mares inspected on the AHS tour. This now Elite Eligible mare attained an exceptional final score of 8.33, including 9's for head, frame, type, and overall impression and development.
