Origin: Sire, the Westfalian Raphael, was highly regarded as a producer of both dressage and jumping horses. Rienzi's dam, SPS Bounty, is daughter of Lomella, full sister to the late Celle stallion Lathan. Lomella is the grandam of the young mare winner of the 2002 Ratje Niebuhr-Schau. Bounty is also the mother of winners in hand and performance, including Rienzi's full sister SPS Ranis, class winner at the 1999 Louis-Wiegels-Schau. Bounty daughter EM Regan (by the Raphael son Ravallo) was the top-scoring Hanoverian mare of the 1999 AHS/VhW US inspection tour as well as a high score winner in performance shows and breed show champion in her early competition years. After some time as a broodmare, Regan is back in competition, now at Fourth Level, with owner Laura Whitford. Another Bounty daughter, Livia, was winner of the Lillian Haines Trophy at the 1999 KDCTA Dressage Show.

Performance Record: Rienzi passed the 1998 Federation 100-Day Stallion Performance Test finishing 8th of 20 with the highest overall score of any participating Hanoverian that year. His scores for jumping and dressage were virtually equal, placing him second of the Hanoverians in each category. In 2003, his last year of competition, Rienzi placed 15th in the USDF Open Horse of the Year standings at Second Level. He was USDF Region 6 Second Level Freestyle Champion, Northwest Second Level Freestyle Champion and winner of the Northwest Cup for horses competing in First through Fourth Level.

Breeding/Progeny Record: Rienzi daughter Roccoca was top foal of her 2002 AHS Inspection. Rhadius was Reserve Colt and Rara Avis was Reserve Filly of their 2003 AHS Inspection. Rienzi's daughter Raphaea was Young Horse Champion at the 2002 Raleigh Sport Horse Breed Show. Son Remington SF has been a USDF Breeder's Series Colt Champion three times and Reserve once. In 2005, Remington finished 5th in the USDF HOY Materiale 4/5-Year-Old Colts division. Rienzi's daughter Reese was Grand Champion and Materiale class winner at Raleigh in 2004. Reese also won her Materiale class at DAD 2004. In 2005, Reese ranked 7th in USDF HOY Materiale 4/5-Year-Old Mare division and 2nd in the FEI 5-Year Old Award. Additionally, Rienzi daughter Raili has been competing in jumpers, while sons Rafferty and Rimer have had successful early careers in the hunter ring.
