Origin: Rodioso is the son of the great Rohdiamant who excelled in the international ring at Grand Prix Dressage. He is a grandson of the foundation sire, Rubinstein I, on his sire's side and on his dam's side, he is the grandson of the legendary Furioso II. He is the only stallion in the USA that combines the two great lines of Rohdiamant and Furioso II all in one package. At his stallion testing in 1999 he was awarded a 10 for character and a 9 on conformation.

Performance Record: Rodioso's first show season in the USA was as a five year old in 2001. He was named Grand Champion Stallion at Devon that year. In 2005, he was 3rd in the nation with the USDF All Breeds at 4th level. Also in 2005, he was 1st place Oldenburg stallion nationally with USDF in Sporthorse Breeding and 4th nationally over all breeds with USDF. He finished the 2005 in hand season as Grand Champion Cosequin Sporthorse Breeding for the Pacific Northwest. In 2007, Rodioso made his Intermediate I debut and was named Reserve Champion nationally by the USEF in their Performance Horse Awards program. In 2008, he continued a limited showing season and is currently schooling Grand Prix.

Breeding/Progeny Record: Rodioso's first foal crop in the USA arrived in 2002. Many now are making successful debuts in the dressage ring. Rebecca, a premium filly of 2003, won Junior High Point at her first showing with a 69.9%. Ruffiano placed 2nd in Oldenburg colts of 2005 with the USDF. That same year he also placed 1st in Region 8 Sporthorse Breeding Finals and was Reserve Champion NEDA Futurity colt. Reno, a colt of 2006, won his first weanling colt class with an 81%. Rane, a premium filly, placed 2nd in fillies of 2005 her first time out with a score of 80%. Each year Rodioso produces a good number of premium foals at the various breed inspections he is licensed for. His offspring's most outstanding traits are their wonderful temperaments and modern refined looks. They have soft expressive movement and are of moderate size. They excel at dressage.
