Origin: Wolkentanz II is by the famous Hanoverian stallion Weltmeyer. Weltmeyer is currently ranked third in the world for producing dressage horses, according to the 2008 World Breeding Federation statistics. According to the 2007

Hannoveraner Jahrbuch hengste, Weltmeyer has 85 Approved sons and 390 State Premium mares. Wolkentanz II's dam, the State Premium mare Lovely, produced his full brother, Wolkentanz I, owned by the Celle State Stud in Germany as well as the full sister, WeiBe Rose, Champion of the 1994 Louis Wiegels Show. The dam line has produced the brothers Chasseur I & II as well as numerous competition sport horses. Wolkentanz II's dam sire, the black stallion Ludendorff, made a name for himself as a producer of easy to ride dressage & jumping horses.

Performance Record: Wolkentanz II was a highly placed finalist in the 1998 Federal Three Year Old Stallion Championships in Warendorf, placing 4th. In 1999 he was Reserve Champion of his Performance test at Medingen Germany with an index of 133.56 and was Champion of the Dressage portion with an index of 143.94 scoring two 10's for rideability. In 2000, he won the qualification for the Federal Championship at the Aschendorf State Competition and took part in the World Championship of Young Dressage Horses in Arnheim, Netherlands. In 2001 he competed in the 6 yr old Dressage Horse Test at the International Dressage Festival in Lingen, winning with a top score of 9.6. He then went on to be a highly placed finalist at the Bundeschampionat for 6 yr olds in Warendorf. Wolkentanz II went on to compete at Advanced level dressage (S level) with wins and high placings at Prix St. George and Intermediare I in Germany & Europe.

Breeding/Progeny Record: Wolkentanz II is considered one of the best sons of Weltmeyer with very high breed values in Germany. He was ranked # 2 of all Sires with 172 points for producing type and riding horse qualities & ranked # 14 of all Sires for Dressage with 145 points according to the 2007 Hannoveraner Jahrbuch Hengste. He adds type, excellent gaits, temperament & rideability to his offspring and is producing some truly outstanding competition horses showing & winning in Europe & North America. He has sired 12 Approved sons (3 of which received Premium) & 21 State premium mares (42% of inspected mares). He has sired many Bundeschampionate participants, riding horse Champions & offspring that are commanding top prices at the most prestigious sales and auctions. His son Wyllow R out of a Don Primero mare was the Bronze Medallist in the five-year-old division of dressage horses at the 2008 Federal Championships & sold for 380,000 Euro ($520,000.00 U.S.) at the PSI Auction in December 2008.
