

Coco Cavalli

Cheenook (Caretino) x Carprilli

Coco Cavalli, a 1996 Oldenburg stallion, is one of only 2 approved sons of Cheenook. Talented in jumping and dressage, Coco competed successfully in both disciplines in Germany. He was second in the breed show for stallions under saddle in his first time at Devon. In 2006 he was USDF All Breed Champion at I1 and in 2007 Coco was 2nd at Grand Prix. His conformation is without peer. Coco's temperament, character in trainability concentration and kindness are not to be surpassed. His forwardness, lightness in hand along with his expressive gaits and his desire to please make him one of the most sought after stallions available. Coco stamps his foals with his wonderful personality and elastic expressive movement. Coco is currently competing at Grand Prix.
