Origin: Festrasch's sire, Florestan I, is one of the leading producers of dressage horses currently in Germany. He has been listed #1 on the FN's breeding value rankings for several years in a row. Florestan I himself was the Champion of the 1988 Rhineland approvals and also won the stallion performance testing in Warendorf in 1989. Florestan has 50 approved sons, many States Premium mares, top auction selling offspring, and ultimately many very successful offspring in dressage. In 2005, three of the six top medals at the World Championships for Young Horses were awarded to Florestan I offspring. Festrasch's dam is the Westphalian mare Candy Girl by the Holsteiner stallion Carprilli (Calypso I-Aldato). As Carprilli's pedigree may suggest, he is equally gifted in producing top quality show jumping horses as well as top dressage talent. Carprilli originally stood in Oldenburg before he was sent to stand at Mecklenburg for three years. From those years at stud, he produced an outstanding mare base which earned him the title State Premium Stallion of Mecklenburg-Western Pomeranian Association in 1998. He has stood in Thuringia since 1997, where over 90% of his foals have been awarded premium titles. To date, he has 12 approved sons and over 25 States Premium Mares.

Performance Record: Festrasch had an active competitive career in Germany as young stallion in the materiale classes. Performance Sales International then purchased the stallion and he was shown by Dr. Ulf Moller to a 4th place finish in the 1999 FEI World Young Horse Championships.

Breeding/Progeny Record: Festrasch's sons and daughters have been fantastic to train. A generous nature, confident attitude, and their sire's expressive, elastic movement mark his offspring. In 2006, his son Froelich was a finalist in the USEF National Championships and claimed the 2006 North American Breeders Futurity Championship for the 4 year old division. Florette, won her classes at Dressage at Devon's breed show three years in a row, winning Yearling Fillies, Two-Year Old Fillies, and Three-Year Old Fillies titles. In 2002, she was named Filly Champion and Young Horse Reserve Champion of Devon. She also won the Reserve Championship title of the USDF/Cosequin's East Coast Breeders Championship Finals.
