Origin: From Calato, Connecticut, a Grand Prix stallion, inherits the strong performance and breeding lines of Capitol I, who is part of the most influential jumping horse producers of the past decaed. His dam's lineage back to Landgraf I needs no introduction as one of the most successful sport horse breeding stallions of all time.

Performance: Connecticut is a successful Grand Prix dressage stallion who has received such honors wins at grand prix and as Horse of the Year, as well as being invited to demonstrate the ideal piaffe/passage. His pedigree is proven and pre-potent, combining some of the best Holsteiner bloodlines such as Landgraf I, known by many as the Stallion of the Century and Capitol I.

Breeding/Progeny Record: Connecticut is an exceptional producer who frequently passes on his outstanding temperament paired with his phenomenal movement on to his get. Among many others, Connecticut has produced the spectacular Highlife's Floraboyd, premium foal, breed show winner and top priced auction filly.
