Origin: The dam sire Corvado was a son of the great foundation stallion Cor de la Bryère.

Performance Record: Licensed by the German Oldenburg Verband, Convado Z has been shown internationally on the Grand Prix circuit. He earned $585,000 DM prior to importation to the United States by Manna Farms. As a good representative on Convado Z's tremendous scope, style and athleticism his offspring are often awarded premium at foal inspections.

Breeding/Progeny Record: Cantus, grandson of Cor de la Bryère, was a monumental gray stallion with outstanding jumping ability which he passed on to his progeny. Other well known sons of note are Calvaro (second in the World Cup Final and Olympic Silver medal winner) and Come On (Ludger Beerbaum)
